

Silvia Salini

Regulatory Affairs

Silvia Salini was born in Varese, Italy on April 16, 1977 and moved to Lugano (Switzerland) in 1992 where she was also naturalised as Swiss. Her career started in the 3TabGum® Department of Flarer S.A., a Swiss fine chemicals trading company (representing European API producers in Italy) which owns several patents for a special technology to produce 3-layer chewing gums.

In October 2006, she joined the Regulatory Affairs Department of Documedica S.A., a Swiss pharmaceutical company which sells medical devices and food supplements throughout Europe.

Silvia Salini is a member of the Board of Directors of Documedica S.A.